

RENCCEL

eDocs

NAME RESERVATION

Any company may be registered with or without a company name. If a reserved name is not included in the initial application, the company will be registered with its enterprise number.

A name may be added at a later stage through a name amendment, this will involve a cost to change the company name to your preferred name.

A name amendment requires an approved name reservation and a special resolution to effect a change. Please contact us for a quote